CULTURAL EXPECTATIONS

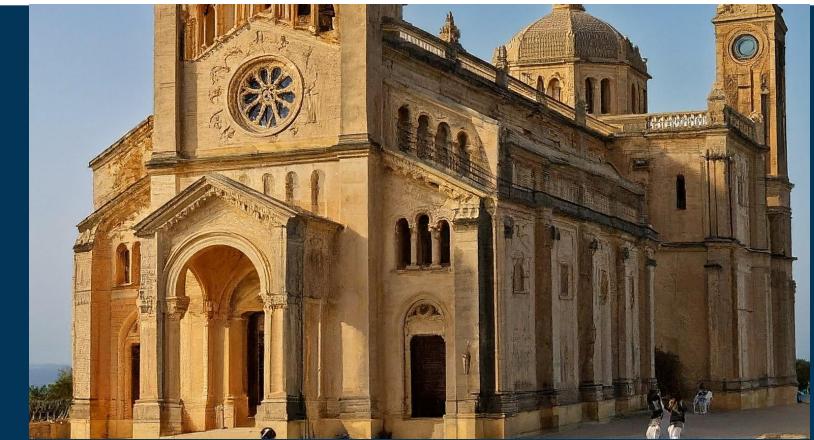

DOs

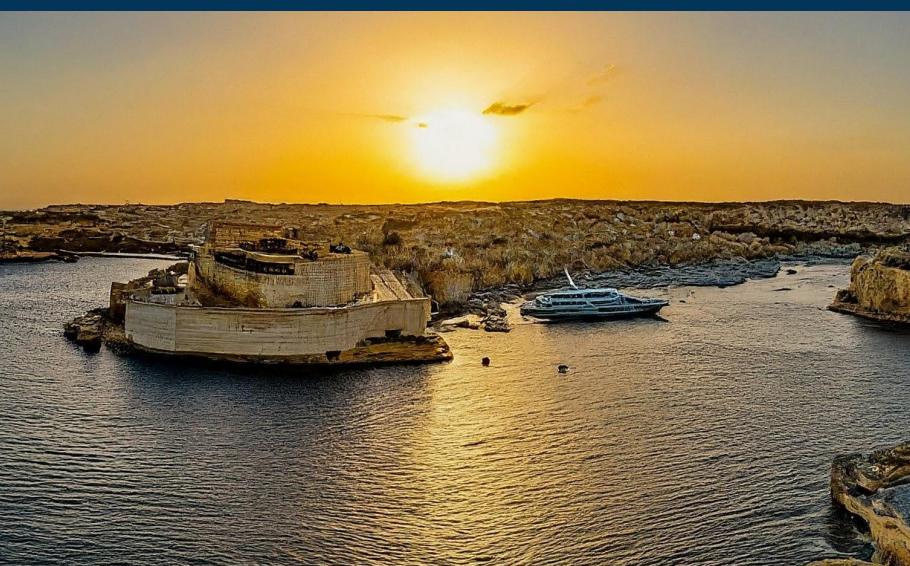

- Always greet people with a friendly "hello" or "good day." Using "bongu" (good morning) or "bonswa" (good evening) in Maltese is appreciated.
- Malta is predominantly Roman Catholic. Dress modestly when visiting churches and be respectful during religious ceremonies and festivals.
- A 10% tip is customary in restaurants if the service charge is not included. It's also nice to tip hotel staff and taxi drivers.
- Address people using titles such as Mr., Mrs., or Miss, followed by their surname. Once you become familiar, you may use first names.

DON'Ts

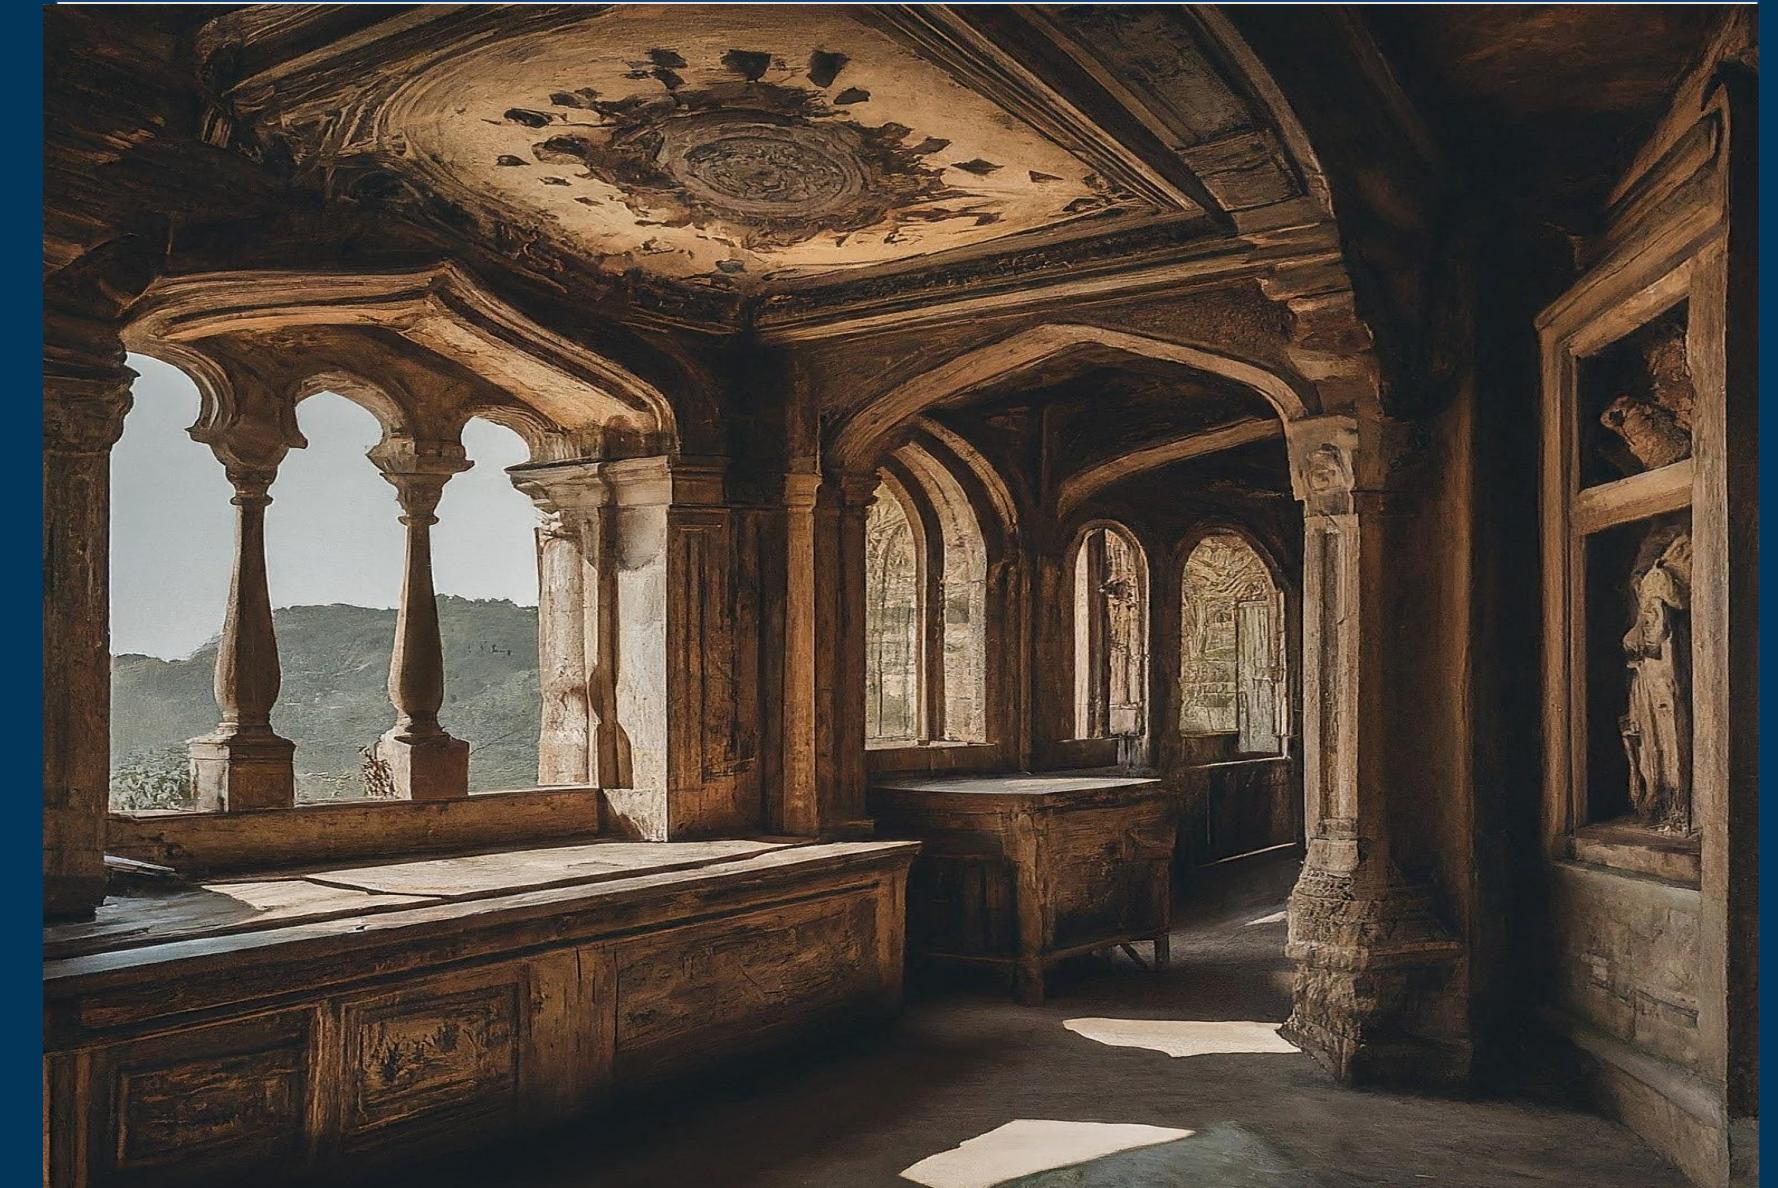

- It's considered inappropriate to walk around in swimwear outside of beach areas. Always cover up when leaving the beach.
- The Maltese value politeness and consideration in public spaces.
- While holding hands is fine, overly affectionate behavior in public can be frowned upon.
- These topics can be sensitive, so it's best to steer clear of them in casual conversation.
